Local Sets New World Records!

I wanted to take a moment and thank all of my sponsors for their generous help in getting me to the World events in Ireland! I never would have been able to compete on the World stage without you and I wanted to share the celebration and success with you all.

As you know, I am still new to the sport and learning more and more everyday. I have new invitations to compete all over the World and none of this would have been possible without all of you and for that I am truly grateful!

It looks like we have an invitation in January and another for the CanAm Bench Press Championships in July 2012 being held in Michigan, so it's back to the gym for more training!!!

Thank you again!!

Warm regards,

Liane R. Sabourin
