

DALLAS HICKS

"Pain is only temporary, but victory is forever!" – Jeremy H.

Nickname:	D-train, Dal, D, D-shizzle, Hicky,
Profession:	Sales & service representative at Canadian Western Bank
Dream job:	Travelling around the globe.
Greatest achievement:	Living like a man for the summer of 2010.
Favourite color:	Purple
Favourite drink:	Would have to be water I can't get enough of that high quality H ₂ O, but definitely not the water at the clubhouse.

Favourite Titan memory:	Oh where do I start, there are so many. I would have to say stampede sevens was my favourite memory. I managed to score a try and kick my convert.
A song that reminds me of the Titans:	Crazy Bitch By Buckcherry
Oddest place I have ever bumped into a Titan:	At work when they come to read out meters

Where and when you first ran onto a rugby field:	In 2004 with the Notre Dame Cougars at the Titans.
Debut season for the Titans:	The summer of 2004 when we went on a tour with the Junior team.
Position:	I started off playing Flanker then got moved to prop and hooker. I also had a short stint in high school playing wing but knocked myself out, so I figured I should stick to the pack.

Who my best mate was during your playing years:	Aimee Thurston
What do I believe is the best attribute about the Titans:	The ability to have a good time win or lose.
The Titan's community member that influenced me the most was:	Kiwi Steve

If I could be a man for one day, I would:	Probably write my name in the snow.
If I could have any special ginger powers, I would want:	Impeccable speed!!!

I like to spend my weekends:	Having a few pints with friends and in the summer playing some hard hitting games of rugby
An exciting endeavour on my horizon is:	Going to Vegas in May possibly
Right now I'm learning:	How to do special reports at work.
Favourite professional rugby player:	I don't really have one. I don't follow professional rugby very closely