The Red Deer Titans Rugby Club is well represented on the provincial teams.

The U19 girls' team has six Red Deer Titans on their roster along with manager Rob Reger and coach Bill Bowd.

The players are Alanna Fittes, Alisa Schneider, Marli Hadden, Emily Stearns, Jen Wickwire and Jovita ByRitter.

Jen Peterson is on the provincial U17 girls' squad with Mike Soley and coach Dan Mickle on the U16 boys' team.

Grady Bowd is a member of the provincial U18 boys' team, which will compete in the Canada Summer Games, Aug. 14-22 in Summerside, P.E.I.

As well, Aly Bowd helped the Alberta U23 team capture gold at the national finals and Shannon Courte was a member of the bronze medal winning Alberta senior women's team.

The provincial U19 girls played a pair of exhibition games last weekend against Manitoba, winning 36-0 and 43-5.

The U18 girls' team beat the Edmonton Pirates 59-0 Wednesday at Titans Park with Fittes scoring four tries and kicking three converts. Breanna Beck and Stearns had two tries each and Wickwire and Schneider one each.
