The Red Deer Titans dropped a 25-12 decision to the Edmonton Clansmen in First Division Rugby League action Tuesday.

The Titans led 9-8 at the half thanks to three penalty kicks by Wade Moore, who added a fourth penalty kick in the second half. The Clan ran their league record to 4-0 with the Titans at 2-2. All three Titans teams — the men's first and third division teams and the women — play the Canucks in Calgary Saturday.
