The Red Deer Titans men's rugby teams wrapped up their respective seasons Saturday, with both squads closing with losses.

The First Division Titans, ranked No. 7, were wiped out at St. Albert, falling 60-0 to the larger, second-ranked team while missing several key players. Meanwhile, the Titans III fell 35-14 to the Calgary Canucks, getting a try from Jeremy Humeniuk as well as a penalty try. Grady Bowd added two conversions for the Titans.

- The Titans U18 girls and boys teams will be in Kamloops for an Oct. 14-16 tournament. New players are welcome to join the teams.
- The Titans fall youth rugby program for boys and girls ages seven to 15 is underway with sessions Mondays and Thursdays at Titans Park. Close to 40 players from Olds, Rocky Mountain House, Innisfail, Sylvan Lake, Red Deer, Lacombe and Rimbey have signed up for the program and late registration is welcome.
