The Red Deer Titans captured their second straight Provincial Cup for first division women's rugby with a 43-19 win over the Edmonton Pirates Saturday.

Shannon Court paced the Titans with three tries and four conversions, while Kayla Ormond scored two tries and Jovita Byzitter and Ericka Ziegler each contributed one.

In men's first division action, the Titans fell 17-10 to the Calgary Canucks. Meanwhile, the Titans third division squad was throttled 80-0 by the Canucks III.

The new Titans Youth Sevens program for boys and girls aged seven to 15 will begin Sept. 8 at Titans Rugby Park. Registration, with a fee of $100 per person, is at 5 p.m. and equipment needed includes soccer footwear, shorts, jersey or sweat top, mouth guard and water bottle.

For more information call 403-392-6676 or 403-347-3491, or visit the Titans website at www.titansrugby.com.
