Jet Grande enjoyed an impressive debut with the Red Deer under-13 Titans boys rugby squad Saturday, scoring three tries as the local side clobbered the visiting Calgary Canucks 50-29.

Titans star Johannes Smith also scored a trio of tries, while Ryan McLeod added a pair. Trent Tarling had four conversions and Johannes Smith had one convert for the Titans, who improved to 5-3.

In under-15 girls action at St. Albert, the Titans/Edmonton combination fell 40-10 to the host team. Kim Mickelson of Lacombe, in her first game, scored both tries in a losing cause.

In under-nine/11 flag rugby play, Dylan Hilman scored four tries as the Titans Purple All Blacks got past the Titans Salmon Crush 30-25. Eli Jones and Ben Tindall each added a try for the winners, with the Salmon Crush getting two tries from Kaiden Frank and one from each of Sonora Robertson, Aidan Robertson and Ethan Jones.

In weekend senior action, the Titans Third Division men thumped the Calgary Saracens 33-14, the Titans First Division men fell 24-22 to the Saracens and the Titans women slapped the Saracens 50-15.
